ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

(Specimen — adapted from Table F of Schedule I to the Companies Act, 2013, for a private company limited by shares. Clause numbers below are for reference within this specimen document only.)

1. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

1.1. In these Articles, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a) "Act" means the Companies Act, 2013, and every statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force.
- (b) "Articles" means these Articles of Association as originally framed or as altered from time to time.
- (c) "Board" or "Board of Directors" means the Board of Directors of the Company.
- (d) "Company" means Nirmaan Technologies Private Limited.
- (e) "Member" means a person whose name is entered in the Register of Members of the Company.
- (f) "Seal" means the common seal of the Company, if adopted.
- (g) Words importing the singular number include the plural and vice versa; words importing the masculine gender include the feminine gender.

2. SHARE CAPITAL AND VARIATION OF RIGHTS

- 2.1. The Authorised Share Capital of the Company shall be as stated in Clause V of the Memorandum of Association.
- 2.2. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, the shares of the Company shall be under the control of the Board, who may allot or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons, on such terms and conditions, and at such time as the Board thinks fit.
- 2.3. The Company may, subject to compliance with Sections 42 and 62 of the Act, issue further shares by way of rights issue, private placement, preferential allotment, or bonus issue, as approved by the Board or Members, as applicable.
- 2.4. No shares shall be issued at a discount except as permitted under the Act. Shares may be issued with differential rights as to dividend, voting, or otherwise, subject to compliance with applicable rules.

3. VARIATION OF SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS

- 3.1. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class may be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of at least three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of shares of that class, subject to the provisions of Section 48 of the Act.
- 3.2. The rights conferred upon the holders of any class of shares shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided in the terms of issue, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.

4. TRANSFER OF SHARES

- 4.1. Being a private company, the right to transfer the shares of the Company is restricted in the manner provided in these Articles. No share shall be transferred to a person who is not a Member of the Company so long as any Member is willing to purchase the same at a fair value determined in the manner set out in Article 4.3, save and except transfers to Promoters, their relatives, or permitted transferees under any shareholders' agreement to which the Company is a party.
- 4.2. Every instrument of transfer shall be in the form prescribed under the Act, duly stamped and executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and the transferee, and shall be delivered to the Company along with the share certificate(s).
- 4.3. The Board may decline to register any transfer of shares, not being fully paid-up shares, to a person of whom the Board does not approve, provided that reasons for such refusal are communicated to the transferor and transferee within the time prescribed under the Act.

4.4. The Directors may, at their discretion, refuse to register the transfer of any share on which the Company has a lien, subject to the provisions of the Act.

5. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

5.1. In the case of death of a Member, the survivor(s), where the deceased was a joint holder, and the legal representatives of the deceased where the deceased was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the deceased's interest in the shares.

5.2. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death, insolvency, or lawful transmission of a Member may, upon producing such evidence of title as the Board may require, elect either to be registered as a Member or to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or insolvent Member could have made.

5.3. A person entitled to a share by transmission shall be entitled to receive, and may give a discharge for, dividends and other moneys payable in respect of the share, but shall not be entitled to exercise any right as a Member until registered as the holder of the share.

6. GENERAL MEETINGS

6.1. The Company shall, in each calendar year, hold an Annual General Meeting in addition to any other meetings, in accordance with Section 96 of the Act, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notice calling it. Not more than fifteen months shall elapse between two Annual General Meetings.

6.2. All general meetings other than the Annual General Meeting shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings, and may be convened by the Board on its own motion, or shall be convened on the requisition of Members holding not less than one-tenth of the paid-up share capital carrying voting rights, in accordance with Section 100 of the Act.

6.3. A general meeting may be called by giving not less than clear twenty-one days' notice in writing, or such shorter notice as may be agreed to by Members holding not less than ninety-five per cent of the paid-up share capital giving a right to vote at such meeting, in accordance with Section 101 of the Act.

6.4. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time the meeting proceeds to business. Save as otherwise provided in the Act, two Members present in person shall constitute the quorum for a general meeting of the Company.

6.5. Every question submitted to a general meeting shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded in accordance with the Act, and shall, where applicable, be decided in accordance with Section 110 of the Act by means of postal ballot or e-voting.

7. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

7.1. Unless otherwise determined by the Company in general meeting, the number of Directors shall not be less than two and not more than fifteen, provided that the Company may, by special resolution, appoint more than fifteen Directors in accordance with Section 149 of the Act.

7.2. The Board shall comprise Directors as disclosed to the Members from time to time, including Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors, Independent Directors, and any Nominee Director appointed pursuant to the terms of any investment or shareholders' agreement to which the Company is a party.

7.3. The remuneration of the Directors shall, from time to time, be determined by the Company in general meeting or by the Board, subject to the provisions of the Act, and shall be deemed to accrue from day to day. Directors may also be paid reasonable travelling, hotel, and other expenses incurred in attending Board or Committee meetings.

7.4. At every Annual General Meeting, one-third of the Directors for the time being liable to retire by rotation, or if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number nearest to one-third, shall retire from office, in accordance with Section 152 of the Act, provided that this Article shall not apply to Independent Directors.

8. POWERS OF DIRECTORS

8.1. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, the Board shall be entitled to exercise all such powers and to do all such acts and things as the Company is authorised to exercise and do, and is not, by the Act or any other law or the Memorandum or these Articles, required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting.

8.2. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Board may, subject to the Act, delegate any of its powers to committees consisting of such Directors as it thinks fit, including an Audit Committee, Nomination and Remuneration Committee, and Stakeholders Relationship Committee, where applicable.

8.3. The Board shall exercise the following powers only by means of resolutions passed at meetings of the Board: to make calls on shareholders, to authorise buy-back of securities, to issue securities, to borrow monies, to invest funds of the Company, and to grant loans or give guarantees or provide security in respect of loans, in accordance with Section 179 of the Act.

9. PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD

9.1. The Board shall meet at least once in every calendar quarter, and at least four such meetings shall be held in every year, with a maximum interval of one hundred and twenty days between two consecutive meetings, in accordance with Section 173 of the Act.

9.2. Notice of not less than seven days in writing shall be given to every Director for a Board meeting, provided that a meeting may be called at shorter notice to transact urgent business, subject to the conditions prescribed under the Act.

9.3. The quorum for a meeting of the Board shall be one-third of its total strength or two Directors, whichever is higher, and participation by a Director through video-conferencing or other audio-visual means shall be counted for the purpose of quorum, unless the item of business is one on which a Director cannot participate through electronic mode under the Act.

9.4. A resolution in writing, circulated to all Directors and signed by a majority of Directors entitled to vote thereon, shall be as valid and effectual as a resolution duly passed at a meeting of the Board, in accordance with Section 175 of the Act.

10. DIVIDENDS

10.1. The Company in general meeting may declare dividends, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board. No dividend shall be declared or paid otherwise than out of the profits of the Company for the financial year, or out of the profits for any previous financial year(s) arrived at after providing for depreciation, in accordance with Section 123 of the Act.

10.2. The Board may, from time to time, pay to the Members such interim dividends as appear to the Board to be justified by the profits of the Company.

10.3. As disclosed in the Company's records, no dividend has been declared or paid by the Company to date, consistent with its current growth-stage reinvestment strategy; this Article does not restrict the Company's ability to declare dividends in future in accordance with law.

10.4. No unpaid dividend shall bear interest as against the Company. Unclaimed dividends shall be dealt with in accordance with Sections 124 and 125 of the Act, including transfer to the Investor Education and Protection Fund where applicable.

11. ACCOUNTS

11.1. The Company shall keep proper books of account with respect to all sums of money received and expended, all sales and purchases of goods and services, and the assets and liabilities of the Company, in accordance with Section 128 of the Act.

11.2. The books of account shall be kept at the Registered Office of the Company, or at such other place in India as the Board may decide, and shall be open to inspection by Directors during business hours, subject to reasonable restrictions as the Board may impose.

11.3. The Board shall, from time to time, determine whether and to what extent the accounts and books of the Company shall be open to inspection by Members not being Directors.

12. AUDIT

12.1. Auditors shall be appointed and their rights and duties regulated in accordance with Sections 139 to 148 of the Act. The first Auditors of the Company were appointed by the Board in accordance with Section 139(6) of the Act.

12.2. The remuneration of the Auditors shall be fixed by the Company in general meeting or in such manner as the Company in general meeting may determine.

12.3. As disclosed in the Company's records, the statutory auditor of the Company is B P S & Associates, Chartered Accountants, subject to periodic re-appointment or rotation in accordance with the Act.

13. NOTICES

13.1. A notice may be given by the Company to any Member either personally, by post, by courier, or by electronic means in accordance with Section 20 of the Act and the rules made thereunder, at the registered address of such Member in India.

13.2. Notice of every general meeting shall be given to every Member, to the Auditors, and to every Director of the Company, in the manner authorised by the Act.

14. INDEMNITY

14.1. Subject to the provisions of the Act, every Director, Manager, Company Secretary, and other officer of the Company shall be indemnified by the Company against any liability incurred by such person in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in such person's favour, or in which such person is acquitted, or in connection with any application in which relief is granted by the court.

14.2. No Director or other officer of the Company shall be liable for the acts, receipts, neglects, or defaults of any other Director or officer, or for joining in any receipt or other act for conformity, or for any loss or expense happening to the Company, unless the same happens through such Director's or officer's own wilful neglect or default.

15. WINDING UP

15.1. If the Company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Act, divide among the Members, in specie or kind, the whole or any part of the assets of the Company, in accordance with Section 319 of the Act (or its successor provisions).

15.2. The liquidator may, with like sanction, vest the whole or any part of such assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator, with like sanction, thinks fit.

16. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

16.1. The Company may adopt a Common Seal, the use of which shall be regulated by the Board. Where the Company does not have a Common Seal, authorised signatories may execute documents in the manner permitted under the Act.

16.2. Nothing contained in these Articles shall be construed as to derogate from the rights and obligations of the Company or its Members under any shareholders' agreement, share subscription agreement, or investment agreement to which the Company and its Members are party, to the extent such rights and obligations are not inconsistent with the Act, provided that in the event of any conflict between these Articles and such agreements, these Articles as filed with the Registrar of Companies shall prevail as between the Company and third parties dealing with the Company in good faith.

16.3. Capitalised terms used but not defined in this Article 16 shall have the meaning assigned to them elsewhere in these Articles or in the Memorandum of Association.

16.4. These Articles may be altered or added to by the Company by way of a special resolution in accordance with Section 14 of the Act.

We, the several persons whose names and addresses are subscribed, are desirous of being formed into a Company in pursuance of these Articles of Association.
